

Faith at Home “take-home”

For the week of Sunday, Oct. 18th-24th

READ this Bible passage: Hebrews 13:1-8, and 15-16

Read it in the Message version by looking it on Biblegateway.com if you can.

READ this reflection by a church member:

These verses are difficult to live out with real strangers, those whom you don't know, especially when you are a child and it is dangerous. It might put you in a difficult situation. However, you can reach out to the people in your family as “strangers”. Might there be someone in your own family that you don't know very well? I didn't know my own mother-in-law very well because she was a very private person. It was difficult for her to share things from her past with us but I found that when I asked her good questions she began to answer and tell me about when she was a child.

ASK each other the following questions (starting with children asking their parents):

- What was/is your favorite game as a child?
- Who were your best friends?
- What was/is your favorite class in school?
- What is/was your favorite thing to do on vacation?
