

Faith at Home
For the week of Sunday, April 11, 2010

Read Luke 19:37-43 and consider the following questions:

- Why do you think the crowd was saying "peace in heaven"
- (Luke 19:38) instead of shouting for peace on earth?
- There was little peace in the land at this particular time in scripture. What do you think the "things that make for peace" are/were that Jesus was speaking about?
- Are these "things that make for peace" still relevant today?

Create a "Rocks Cry Out" list.

If others are silent around you, how might you be a "rock" that shouts out for peace in your neighborhood, your city, your state, your country, your world?

For the children:

- How can you show your friends how to be a peaceful person?
- Draw a picture of what a peaceful person looks like.

Prayer

Heavenly Father, we thank you for sending us the ultimate example of a peace-maker by sending Your Son Jesus. Please help us to be aware of how we might be instruments of Your peace at a time when peace seems hard to attain. Enable us to be "the rocks that cry out" when others around us remain silent. Amen.

Go to <http://spcptbuzz.wikispaces.com/> and listen to the Faith @ Home Song for the Week: "Instruments of Your Peace" by Kendall Payne.

